as a user, I can login through Facebook on main page

User can press a button to access third-party authentication and then log in. If it goes right, user is logged in through Facebook account. If it goes wrong, error pops up to show that user did not properly log in.